

CLEM AND CLIFF PROMOTE SCORING FOR IF

After all these years, Cliff Smith and Clem Jones have put their differences behind them and banded together in a show of support for the Inside Film Awards, starring in a trailer promoting the scoring for the awards throughout the year. Directed by Mick Elliott, the trailer is set to play in cinemas and at festivals across the country.

The pair has famously locked horns over their widely differing opinions on films such as Moulin Rouge! and Wolf Creek. But one thing they do agree upon is the need for Australians to watch more local films and have their say by rating them on www.ifawards.com.
